Sales Tax

GRM Distributing, LLC follows applicable sales tax laws. Below is a summary of how and when sales tax is added to orders. Sales tax is determined based on the shipping address.

Orders Shipped to Arizona: Sales tax will be calculated on the products purchased and added to order at checkout. All sales tax collected is turned over to the appropriate tax authority.

Out of state orders: Due to the many jurisdictions across the United States, the law does not require us to charge and collect sales tax for shipments outside of Arizona. As such, sales tax will not be added to any order shipped outside of Arizona. Sales tax is the responsibility of the purchaser. (eBay exception listed below.)

Restoration Shops / Repair Shops / Distribution Companies. If you are a tax exempt entity or wish to purchase larger quantities please contact us for special pricing.

eBay Sales: eBay now requires and adds sales tax to all orders. This is out of our control. If you are a tax exempt business you can request tax exempt status directly from eBay. Once approved, sales tax will not show on your eBay orders.
